THE LIGHT EDIT

VOL 24. ISSUE 01

Our partners in light, Brokis, arrived with new launches and reimagined narratives that showcase a profound mastery over material, space and light.

As the exclusive Indian partners of Brokis and other leading international brands, we bring these innovations directly to your projects with the expertise to specify, supply, and support every piece.

NEW IN LIGHT

Welcoming Arcade

Most lighting treats the cable as something to hide. Arcade makes it the point. Boris Klimek has taken the one element designers spend the most effort concealing and turned it into the primary structural and visual gesture, a deliberate, confident inversion that only works because the execution is immaculate.

Arcade+ extends this logic further, pairing hand-finished glass elements with graceful synthetic silk cords. The result sits at the intersection of craft and concept lighting that earns attention without demanding it.

NEW VERSION

Starcloud

Lucie Koldova's Starcloud was always about atmosphere at scale. The new compact table and wall versions bring that same celestial quality into tighter, more intimate spaces - a bedside, a reading corner - without losing any of the softness that made the original compelling.

Most of what you see at 3daysofdesign never reaches India - We make sure it does

As Brokis' exclusive Indian partner, we bring their work directly to your projects with the curatorial knowledge to recommend the right piece, and the technical expertise to specify, supply, and support it from first conversation to final installation.

At Innovative Design Studio, access is only the beginning.
